water into potable water has not been received from the Government of Tamil Nadu.

Constitution of Ganga Management Board

†5100. SHRI MANOHAR KANT DHYANI: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to refer to reply to Starred Question 410 given in the Rajya Sabha on 21st August, 2001 and state:

(a) whether any draft has been sent to the Government of Uttar Pradesh in the process of deliberations held in this matter between two State Governments on the 27th April, 2001;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reaction of Uttar Pradesh Government thereon;

(c) whether Central Government will constitute a board by using the rights countered under the Act in case the State Governments fail for a year; and

(d) if so, by when and if not, the reason therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY): (a) to (d) Subsequent to the inter-State meeting convened by Central Water Commission with Government of Uttar Pradesh and Government of Uttaranchal on 27th April, 2001, the Government of Uttaranchal in their draft resolution sent to Government of Uttar Pradesh on 26.5.2001 have inter-alia proposed splitting up the projects under schedules I, II and III as follows:—

The Schedule - I containing the canal systems to be coordinated by the Ganga Management Board (GMB).

Schedule - II containing the reaches of rivers under the purview of GMB but on which the States shall have exclusive right with in their respective territories to the non consumptive use of rivers; and Schedule - III containing the points (Reservoirs/Canals) at which status quo as on 9.11.2000 on the distribution of waters among the States shall be maintained.

The Government of Uttar Pradesh has communicated its observations to the Central Water Commission stating that the draft resolution is not in accordance with the Section 79 & 80 of the Uttar Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2000. The observations of Uttar Pradesh have been sent to Government of Uttaranchal on 17th October, 2001 by Central Water Commission. Setting up of the Ganga Management Board is linked to the State Governments coming to an early agreement on the scope and functions of the Board. The Uttar Pradesh Reorganisation Act has not specified any time limit for setting up of Ganga Management Board by the Central Government.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

Rain water harvesting in urban areas

5101. SHRI B. J. PANDA: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) the details of programme, Ministry is having for harvesting rain water in urban areas;

(b) the details of technology which has been developed for popular use; and

(c) the quantum of water which is presently harvested from rain in different cities?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY): (a) The Central Ground Water Board under the Ministry of Water Resources had implemented demonstrative rain water harvesting and recharge projects in few cities of the country under its Central Sector Scheme for Study of Recharge to Ground Water on "pilot basis" during IX Five Year Plan. The Board has proposed a Central Sector Scheme on "Development of Ground Water Resources and Rain Water Harvesting in Major Cities" for inclusion in the X Five Year Plan. This proposed scheme is at a consultation stage.

(b) Collection of rain water through roofs of the buildings and recharge of collected run off through trench/shaft with recharge better known as "roof top rain water harvesting" is a popular technology being implemented in the cities for recharging of ground water.

(c) No assessment regarding quantum of water being harvested presently from rain in different cities has been made.